Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a list or account. The text is dense and difficult to decipher due to the cursive style and some fading. It appears to be organized into several lines, possibly representing different entries or items.

Handwritten signatures and names, including:
- A large signature on the left, possibly "Juan de..."
- A signature in the middle, possibly "Diego..."
- A signature on the right, possibly "Gabriel..."
- Other smaller signatures and names scattered around.

Handwritten text at the bottom right, possibly a date or a specific reference, including the word "Alonso" and "Munoz".

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a legal or administrative document. The text is dense and covers most of the page. It appears to be a formal record or a set of instructions, possibly related to land or property, given the mention of "terrenos" and "heredades" in some of the legible words. The script is highly stylized and characteristic of the 17th or 18th century.

Handwritten signature or name, possibly "Francisco" or similar, written in a cursive hand.

Handwritten signature or name, possibly "Simón" or similar, written in a cursive hand.

Handwritten text, possibly a date or a reference, including the word "Año" and "Mes" (Month).
